Upcoming: IB Information Evening

All parents of current tenth grade students are invited and encouraged to attend an IB Diploma workshop on Thursday, February 26 at 7:00 pm in the MPR (Campo Dome). Mr. Lowman will explain the basic structure of the IB program and then answer questions. Tenth grade students may also attend though their attendance is not required since a similar workshop will be offered during the school day. Though the workshop will be geared for parents of rising eleventh grade students, other interested parents are certainly invited to attend the meeting. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Lowman in the HS office extension 4002 or win_lowman@eca.com.ve

Elementary Art Exhibition

The exhibition will continue this week until Friday February 20th.

February 25 3:30 pm Dismissal

Next Wednesday, February 25 will be a full day. Dismissal will be at 3:30 pm not at 2:00 pm. Additional modifications to the calendar will be announced in next week's Campo News and by SMS.

IB Theatre Showcase

IB Theatre students have devised original performance for the showcase this year. Performances have been researched, written, directed and staged by students in the course. There will be three 20 minute pieces, each based on a different area of theatre.

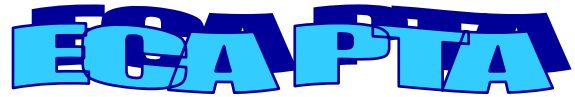

The first piece is based on aspects of Greek theatre and was conceived and directed by Freggy Hernandez. The inspiration for the second piece was the writing of William Shakespeare and was conceived and directed by Ayana Andalco. And the final piece was conceived and directed by Erika Smith and is based on the Theatre of Cruelty. This promises to be a thought-provoking evening, one not to be missed.

February 18th and 19th at 7:00 pm in the theatre. Tickets are 10 BsF available at the main office or from cast members. Please note however, there are limited tickets as the seating is on the stage.
