

November 9-13

The first group of Grade 5 red hats have done a tremendous job! New red hats will be inducted at this Wednesday's white shirt assembly, hope to see you there!

Classes will be visiting the Scholastic book fair this week.

Ms. Mac: Tuesday at 11:00

Ms. Deutsch: Monday at 12:30

Ms. Fitz: Monday at 12:30

Reading: Students are enjoying their new novels and will enjoy visiting the book fair this week to pick out some new books.

Writing: Our advertising non print unit is well underway. Students worked on product logos last week and will be writing their own advertisement commercial this week. Their logos came out great!

Math: Unit 3, Geometry, will begin this week. Please remind your child that they can always practice math skills on IXL and other games located on the Wiki.

Social Studies: Exploration note taking is going smoothly with access to the library resources and also the laptops. The wiki has all the project information. This week students will be filing out their project contract with their teacher.
